Caution: IRS Private Letter Rulings have raised doubts regarding secular trusts. While these rulings apply only to the taxpayers who requested them, they should be considered before using a secular trust. See PLR 9206009, 9207010, and 9302017. In the foregoing private letter rulings, the IRS ruled that it is impossible to create an employer grantor secular trust because it would be fundamentally inconsistent to treat the employer as the owner of a trust in which the assets contributed to the trust are taxable as income to the employee. As a result, attempts to create an employer grantor secular trust have all been unsuccessful.

Proposed Regulations. On September 27, 1996, the IRS issued proposed regulations Section 1.671-1(g) concerning domestic nonexempt employees' trusts. The proposed regulations provide that an employer is not treated for federal income tax purposes as an owner of any portion of a nonexempt employees' trust described in section 402(b) that is part of a deferred compensation plan, and that is not a foreign trust within the meaning of section 7701(a)(31), regardless of whether the employer has a power or interest described in sections 673 through 677 over any portion of the trust. This rule is analogous to the rule set forth in Section 1.641(a)-0, which provides that subchapter J, including the grantor trust rules, does not apply to tax-exempt employees' trusts.

Non-Grantor Secular Trust. The following specimen secular trust has been designed as a non-grantor secular trust. Under that design, employer contributions used to fund the trust are deductible by the employer and taxable to the employee in the year of contribution. The earnings on the trust assets are currently taxed to the employee, whether accumulated or distributed. If the trust earnings are distributed to the employee, then the trust itself will have no taxable income. If trust income is accumulated, then both the trust and the employee will be taxed on the income.

WHEREAS, Company has adopted the nonqualified deferred compensation Plan(s) as listed in Appendix____; and

WHEREAS, Company has incurred or expects to incur liability under the terms of such Plan(s) with respect to the individual(s) participating in such Plan(s); and

WHEREAS, Company wishes to establish a trust (hereinafter called "Trust") and to contribute to the Trust assets that shall be held therein that shall not be subject to the claims of Company’s creditors in the event of Company’s insolvency, as herein defined, until paid to Plan participants and their beneficiaries in such manner and at such times as specified in the Plan(s); and

WHEREAS, it is the intention of the parties that this Trust shall constitute a funded arrangement maintained for the purpose of providing deferred compensation for a select group of management or highly compensated employees for purposes of Title I of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974; and

WHEREAS, it is the intention of Company to make contributions to the Trust to provide itself with a source of funds to help meet its liabilities under the Plan(s).

NOW, THEREFORE, the parties do hereby establish this Trust and agree that the Trust shall be comprised, held and disposed of as follows:

SECTION 1. ESTABLISHMENT OF TRUST

(a) Company hereby deposits with Trustee in trust ____ [insert amount deposited], which shall become the principal of the Trust to be held, administered and disposed of by Trustee as provided in this Trust Agreement.

Any rights created under the Plan(s) and this Trust Agreement shall be secured contractual rights of Plan participants and their beneficiaries against Company. Any assets held by the Trust will not be subject to the claims of Company’s general creditors under federal and state law in the event of Insolvency (whether the Company is unable to pay its debts as they become due, or the Company is subject to a pending proceeding as a debtor under the United States Bankruptcy Code, or the Company is determined to be insolvent by a relevant federal and/or state regulatory agency).

(e) Company, in its sole discretion, may at any time, or from time to time, make additional deposits of cash or other property in trust with Trustee to augment the principal to be held, administered and disposed of by Trustee as provided in this Trust Agreement. Trustee may allocate payment from the Trust to provide for cover taxes owed by Plan participants on the monies paid into the funded arrangement to their benefit.

(b) The entitlement of a Plan participant or his or her beneficiaries to benefits under the Plan(s) shall be determined by Company or such party as it shall designate under the Plan(s), and any claim for such benefits shall be considered and reviewed under the procedures set out in the Plan(s).

Company shall notify Trustee of its decision to make payment of benefits directly prior to the time amounts are payable to participants or their beneficiaries. In addition, if the principal of the Trust, and any earnings thereon, are not sufficient to make payments of benefits in accordance with the terms of the Plan(s), Company shall make the balance of each such payment as it falls due. Trustee shall notify Company where principal and earnings are not sufficient.
